Be a

Catechist

Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Others stay for a while leaving footprints on our hearts and we are FOREVER
changed.

10 Reasons To Be A Catechist

- The best way to learn is to teach. If your own faith education ended years ago, the resources and materials you are exposed to as a catechist will surely refresh and expand your own knowledge.
- Catechists tell the truth. The world needs the message of the Gospel and the way to true happiness; as a catechist, you offer a hungry world that sustenance.
- Sharing the faith is an honor. It's estimated that fewer than 1 percent of Catholics are catechists.
- Your own faith will come alive. As a catechist, you will discover that prayer, liturgy and your own relationship with God will become more vibrant and meaningful.
- You become an active part of the most active part of your parish. When you join the catechists in your parish, you enter a community that will support you on your faith journey, pray for and with you and encourage you in your Catholic way of life.
- A catechist is a role model. As a catechist, you get to model behaviors young people might not learn anywhere else.
- You will be practicing stewardship. Being a catechist is a way of being a good steward by giving a bit of your most precious resource -- your time.
- You show your own family that you value religious education. Taking time out of your life to teach the faith shows your own children, grandchildren, siblings and family members that you put a high priority on religious education.
- It's fun. Kids remind adults to live and laugh in the moment and get enthused about things like holy days and stories of saints.
- It's what we are called to do. At the end of his earthly ministry, Jesus said: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations."

Word of Life † May 23rd

“The Lord says to us, ‘Do not fear: I am with you’ (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new.”
